

Evan Doster, French horn soloist

Evan is a sophomore at the University of Oregon who is currently studying both General Music and Physics. Evan started on French horn in the fifth grade under the direction of Benjamin Garrett who would later be his lessons teacher in high school. Currently, he is under the direction of Lydia Van Dreele who made this amazing opportunity possible! Evan has been a part of the Salem Youth Symphony Orchestra, Salem All-City Wind Ensemble, Chemeketa Community College Wind Ensemble, Oregon All-State Wind Ensemble, University of Oregon Wind Ensemble, and he has competed in the Oregon All-State Solo-Ensemble. After graduating college, Evan plans on either continuing his education or going directly into the work field or doing both. He would like to thank his family for supporting him and bringing out the absolute best in him!
